

The door of life

*The door is not open,
Not closed , not ajar,
My life is through this door,
My happiness, my fear,
My tears, my joy,
My smiles , my cries.
My life is through this door.*

*The door is not an escape route , a way out,
Nor is it a door you should be afraid to enter,
This door is full of light and joy,
But the darkness fades in ,
Only soon the clouds of grey and black will be gone,
My life is through this door.*

*My life is through this door,
A roller coaster of emotion,*

*Your life is behind your door,
Quite different from mine,
Behind your door is a film, a story in action,
Displayed in colour, beauty and darkness,
My life is through this door.*
